Dear Tom,

The tapes arrived yesterday, in good shape. Thanks very much.

Hope you were able to catch last night's show. The editing was rough and rough on me but I think its overall effect will be good. Much of my clobbering of Jake the Fake was edited out, to the point where my anger and the reason for calling him a liar was not aired and this, in turn made me appear as an ill-mannered man, angry without cause.

I phoned the Washington station that carried it this a.m. Their switchboard closes down at 10 p.m. At 11 a.m., when the operator had been on duty for an hour, they had had numerous calls favoring the program, asking for a repeat, and some complaining of the interruptions.

Perhaps a better sign, it was loaded with commercials.

Regards,
